

Brief Curriculum Vitae

Violetta Paraskeva, MEd, obtained her first degree from the Department of Special Education, University of Thessaly in 2005. She obtained two Masters degrees, Master in Education (2009) from the Department of Primary Education (title of the master's program "Contemporary Learning Environments and Teaching Material Production"), University of Thessaly and Master in Education (2014) from the Department of Pre-School Education and Educational Design (title of the master's program "Models of Education Planning and Development"2014), Aegean University. Since 2017 she is PhD candidate in the Department of Early Childhood Education, University of Thessaly. Since 2005 she is teaching as special education teacher in primary schools. She has participated in local and international educational programs. Her research interests focus on metacognitive processes of students and teachers. She has presented her research work in scientific journals and conferences.

¹ The three-member committee consists of:

Irini Dermizaki, University of Thessaly (Supervised Professor)

Maria Platsidou, University of Macedonia

Apostolos Magouliotis, University of Thessaly